NARRATIVE:

Nicholas Lill has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include evading a peace officer without regard for safety of others, assault with great bodily injury, grand theft of property, forgery, resisting a peace officer, possession of a narcotic controlled substances, DUI with suspended license, disorderly conduct while intoxicated, possession of marijuana, violation of parole and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 2 year term for assault with great bodily injury. Lill was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 14, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lill qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for assault with great bodily injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
